

2009 IEEE Rural Electric Power Conference

(REPC)

Fort Collins, Colorado, USA
26 – 29 April 2009

IEEE Catalog Number: CFP09RUE-PRT
ISBN: 978-1-4244-3420-6

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Impact of a "Fuse Blow" Scheme on Overhead Distribution System Reliability and Power Quality	1
C. O'Meally, J. Burke
Loose Fuse Caps Impact Reliability	8
C. Williams
Impact of Green Power Generation on Distribution Systems	13
C. J. Mozina
Taming the Seasonal Load with Critical Peak Wholesale	22
D. Backer
Selection of Distribution Feeders for Implementing Distributed and Renewable Energy Applications	31
B. Kroposki, P.K. Sen, K. Malmedal
Ten Steps to a Smarter Grid	42
S. Collier
Rural Distribution System Planning using Smart Grid Technologies	50
B. Saint
An Effective, Poor Man's 'Smart' Distribution Volt/Var Management System	59
E. T. Jauch
The Benefits of Distribution Automation to a Rural Electric Cooperative	68
C. Smallwood, J. Wennemark
Testing Numerical Transformer Differential Relays	77
S. Turner
Distribution Feeder Voltage Regulation Control	84
W. H. Kersting
Distribution Transformer Size Optimization by Forecasting Customer Electricity Load	92
J. D. Luze
Computerized Economic Analysis of Alternative Line Designs A "How To" Approach for Quick Solutions	99
L. Pleasant
Application of Series Air-Core Inductors to Distribution Capacitor Banks Improves Reliability	108
A. Hannah
Arc Flash Analysis Approaches for Medium-Voltage Distribution	114
T. Short
