

2011 1st Workshop on Socio-Technical Aspects in Security and Trust

(STAST 2011)

Milan, Italy
8 September 2011

IEEE Catalog Number: CFP1170P-PRT
ISBN: 978-1-4577-1182-4

Table of Contents

Foreword from the General Chairs	IV
Foreword from the Program Chairs	V
Conference Committee.....	VI
Program Committee	VII
Additional Reviewers	VII

Security and Trust Models with Social/Human Aspects

Security Requirements Engineering via Commitments	1
Fabiano Dalpiaz, Elda Paja, and Paolo Giorgini

Information Security as Organizational Power: A framework for re-thinking security policies.....	9
Philip Inglesant and M. Angela Sasse

Controlled Data Sharing in E-health.....	17
Ilaria Matteucci, Paolo Mori, Marinella Petrocchi, and Luca Wiegand

An Approach to Measure Effectiveness of Control for Risk Analysis with Game Theory.....	24
Lisa Rajbhandari and Einar A. Snekkenes

Security and Trust for Socio-Technical Systems

Camera Use in the Public Domain: Towards a “Big Sister” Approach	30
Manon van der Sar, Ingrid Mulder, and Sunil Choenni

User Study of the Improved Helios Voting System Interfaces	37
Fatih Karayumak, Michaela Kauer, M. Maina Olembo, Tobias Volk, and Melanie Volkamer

Information Security Management Systems and Socio-technical Walkthroughs	45
Kai-Uwe Loser, Alexander Nolte, Thomas Herrmann, and Haiko te Neues

Social/Human Perception of Security and Trust

On-line Trust Perception: What Really Matters	52
Elisa Costante, Jerry den Hartog, and Milan Petkovic

Trustworthy and Effective Communication of Cybersecurity Risks: A Review	60
Jason R. C. Nurse, Sadie Creese, Michael Goldsmith, and Koen Lamberts

Author Index.....	69
--------------------------	-----------