

2014 Workshop on Socio-Technical Aspects in Security and Trust

(STAST 2014)

Vienna, Austria
18 July 2014

IEEE Catalog Number: CFP1470P-POD
ISBN: 978-1-4799-7902-8

4th Workshop on Socio-Technical Aspects in Security and Trust

STAST 2014

Table of Contents

Foreword from the Workshop Chairs.....	vii
Conference Committee.....	viii
Program Committee and Additional Reviewers.....	ix
Keynote: Tackling the Awareness-Behaviour Divide in Security (Step 1): Understand the User by Lynne Coventry.....	x

Security Ceremonies and Policies

Decision Justifications for Wireless Network Selection	1
Debora Jeske, Lynne Coventry, and Pam Briggs
Reflecting on the Ability of Enterprise Security Policy to Address Accidental Insider Threat	8
Oliver Buckley, Jason R.C. Nurse, Philip A. Legg, Michael Goldsmith, and Sadie Creese
Modelling User Devices in Security Ceremonies	16
Taciane Martimiano, Jean Everson Martina, M. Maina Olembo, and Marcelo Carlomagno Carlos

Security and Human Behaviour

The Social Engineering Personality Framework	24
Sven Uebelacker and Susanne Quiel
Modeling Human Behaviour with Higher Order Logic: Insider Threats	31
Jaap Boender, Marieta Georgieva Ivanova, Florian Kammüller, and Giuseppe Primiero

Socio-technical Security

What You Enter Is What You Sign: Input Integrity in an Online Banking Environment	40
Sven Kiljan, Harald Vranken, and Marko Van Eekelen
Using Statistical Information to Communicate Android Permission Risks to Users	48
Lydia Kraus, Ina Wechsung, and Sebastian Möller
Author Index	56